Announcement (Last Reminder)

Dear Fellow Orchidist,

The Orchidaceae family, known for its exquisite and diverse orchids, is a botanical marvel that has captivated plant lovers worldwide. Orchids are renowned for their immense value both in medicinal and floricultural contexts. In India and across the globe, these enchanting blooms have played a pivotal role in traditional medicine, while also establishing themselves as a lucrative industry in the realm of ornamental horticulture. During the conference, it will be demonstrated how innovative lab techniques can be harnessed to establish entrepreneurial ventures within the realm of orchids, fostering economic growth and promoting the widespread utilization of these stunning flowers in various industries. We will explore the untapped potential of orchids and inspire attendees to seize entrepreneurial opportunities in this flourishing field.

We are delighted to announce that The Orchid Society of India (TOSI), in collaboration with the Botanical Survey of India, Kolkata, is organizing an International Conference cum Workshop on Resource Development of Medicinal and Floricultural Orchids- Lab Techniques to Entrepreneurial Ventures & Orchid Show (Hybrid Mode) jointly with Botanical Survey of India (BSI), Kolkata & CSIR-National Chemical Laboratory (NCL), Pune and in co-operation with SPP University; Biospheres, Pune; and PDEABG & DY Patil College Pune from March 15 to 17, 2024 at CSIR-NCL, Pune. The technical sessions shall comprise both oral and poster presentations. This event will bring together a diverse community of scientists, nurserymen, entrepreneurs, and enthusiasts, fostering a platform for knowledge exchange and business opportunities. The abstracts of the accepted papers (posters) will be made available during the conference. The full papers shall be published as proceedings/special volume of our internationally acclaimed peer reviewed and refereed journal, The Journal of The Orchid Society of India (J. Orchid Soc. India; [ISSN: 0971-5371; included in UGC Care List; NAAS rating 5.28].

On behalf of TOSI, and on my own behalf, I have the pleasure to invite you cordially to participate in the conference and your active involvement will enrich our event and contribute to the success of our conference. To confirm your participation, kindly fill out the registration form. Furthermore, please submit the abstracts of your research papers via email to ptosichd@yahoo.com. These abstracts should reach the Secretary, The Orchid Society of India (TOSI) at Department of Botany, Panjab University, Chandigarh-160014, by February 20, 2024. We look forward to your participation, sharing of knowledge, and the collective exploration of the diverse and captivating universe of orchids. Your presence will make this conference truly special and rewarding.

Kindly RSVP and mark your calendars for this exciting event!

Note: You are requested to communicate further by email.

Long live Indian Orchidology!
